Dear Mrs. Powers,

The Class of 2008 will really miss you! You've given us some great memories, and I'm sure we've given you some interesting memories as well. You've been there for us in every step of our high school decisions and duties, and you've worked with each of us to make sure we make it out of this school with as little scratches as possible. Not many students realize just how much you do for us, what with organizing fundraisers, planning prom, and much more, and we just wanted to say thank you so much for giving us your time and dedication. It takes a special person to deal with a couple hundred seniors and come out on top. Thanks for a great experience!

We Will Miss You!

You will be sorely missed by the Class of 2008, and by the entire Bay Path community. Your memory will live in this school forever, and the memories you have created with your peers, friends, and teachers will make us smile whenever our thoughts turn to you. We love you and miss you guys, and we hope we'll make you proud.

The background of the page is a collage of various football game photographs. At the top, there are two large rectangular images showing players in action. Below these, on the left, is a vertical photo of a player in a white jersey with the number 4. On the right, there's a photo of a player in a white jersey with the number 2. In the center, there's a photo of a player in a white jersey with the number 2. At the bottom, there's a photo of a player in a white jersey with the number 4. The word "FOOTBALL" is written in a large, stylized, black font across the top center of the page.

Story time with Ms. Whitney!

Seniors having story time... only at Bay Path...

"Seriously though, there are some good times in high school. There are some good teachers and fun projects to work on."

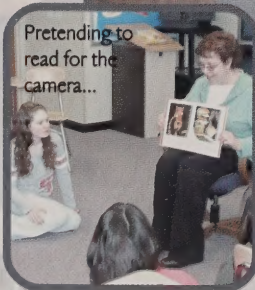

Andrew enjoyed reading us the story in a southern accent.

Ms. Whitney realized the book was upside down...

Pretending to read for the camera...

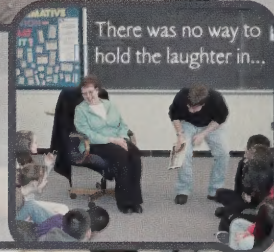

The only way to enjoy a good story is to lay on the floor.

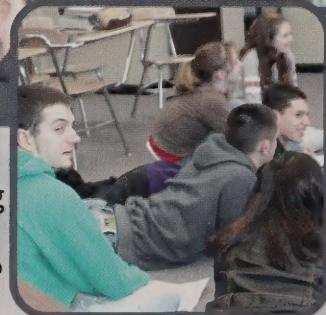

Look! She's holding the book upside down!

There was no way to hold the laughter in...

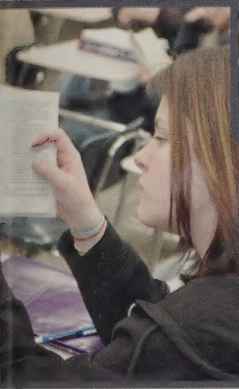

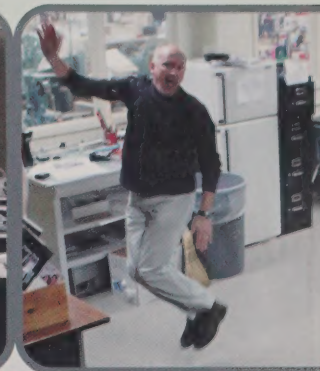

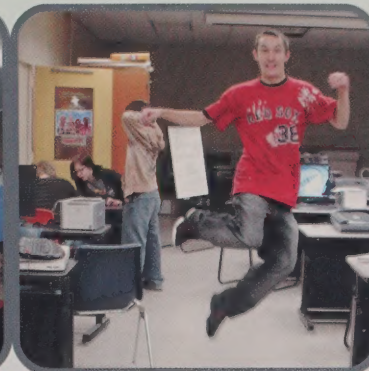

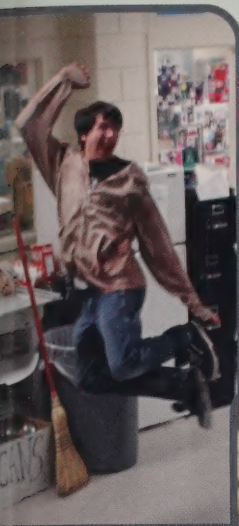

This isn't going to be in the yearbook, is it?

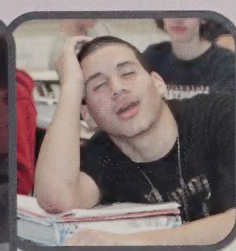

"When I think of high school, I think of diversity. A collage, if you will. A bunch of different people and things all thrown together and told to adapt. No one thing quite like the other."

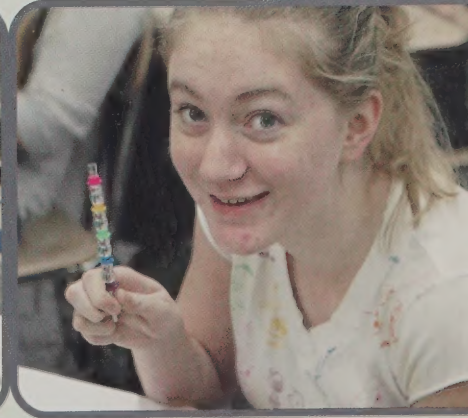

Even though we have our downs, we have everyone bringing us back up. This school has so much spirit and energy."

High school is crabby students who are too tired to work because they only got five hours of sleep. Immense amounts of homework that you end up finishing on the bus at seven thirty in the morning. Lots of laughs and lots of tears."

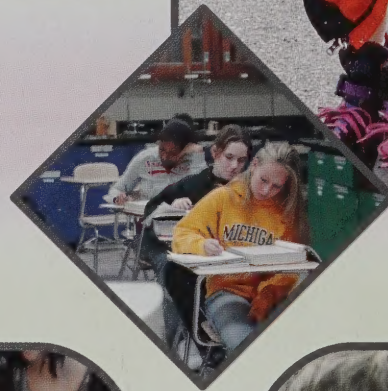

"It is a chance for opportunity in life, if one will reach out and grasp it. It is the testing grounds upon which we must prove ourselves to the world through our achievements."

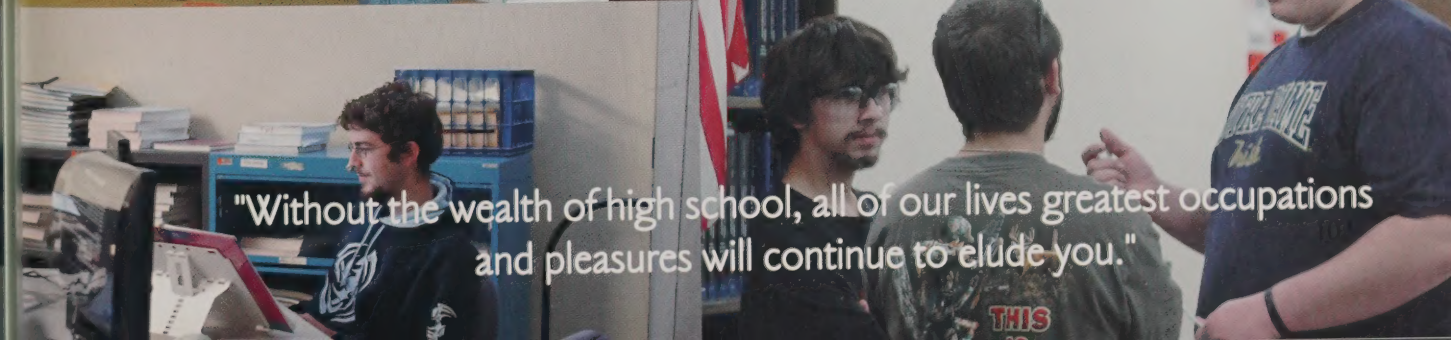

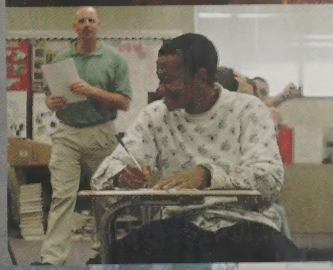

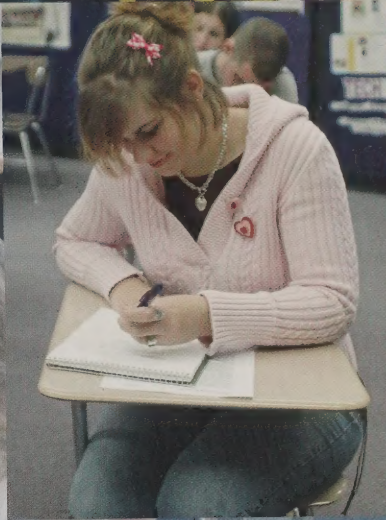

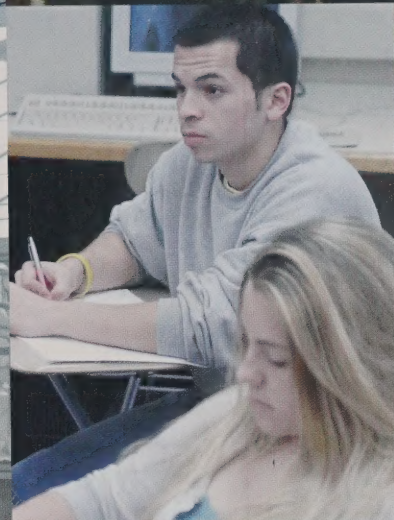

"You have time throughout the four years to change your attitude."

"It is a time for the last memories of childhood."

Ben Lyons

"Without the wealth of high school, all of our lives greatest occupations and pleasures will continue to elude you."

"School means to me the door to the rest of the world."

"Without the wealth of high school, all of our lives' greatest occupations and pleasures will continue to elude us."

Even though the education is the long term bonus of school, it's your friends that give you the strength to deal with it all."

"You also find out sooner or later who your true friends are and the ones that will be there for you no matter what, friendship is always important. You'll also make new friends, when you're in shop with someone for four years they're like family, a dysfunctional one at that. Although at times they can make you extremely angry, there are other days where they can't make you stop laughing."

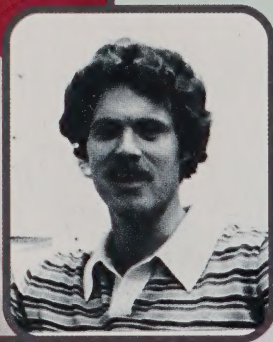

"What I think high school means to me is a fresh start."

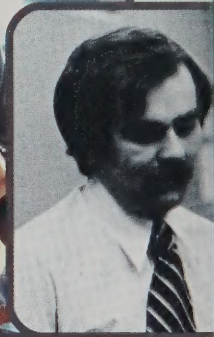

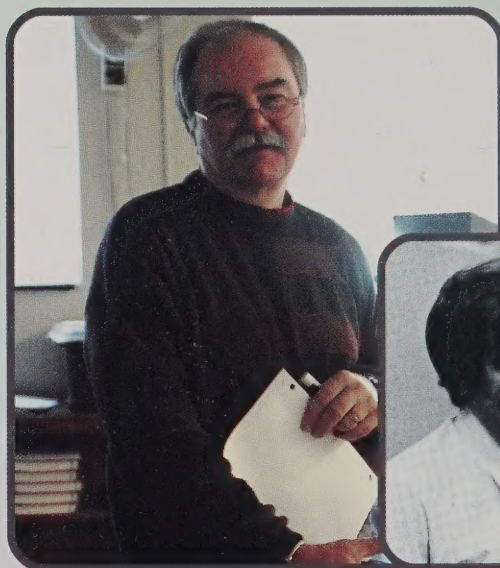

"I would not trade my experience here for anything. It's gonna be a sad day when we take that long walk for our diploma, because we have all gotten to know each other and then when we leave this place you probably are never gonna see these people again, it's sad."

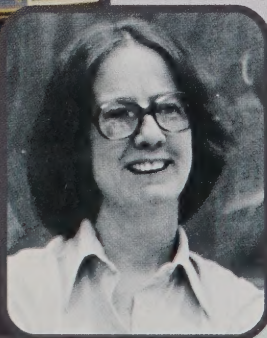

Retiring Teachers

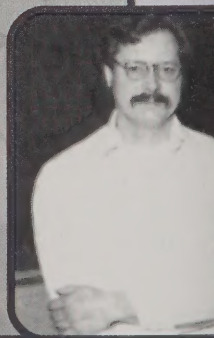

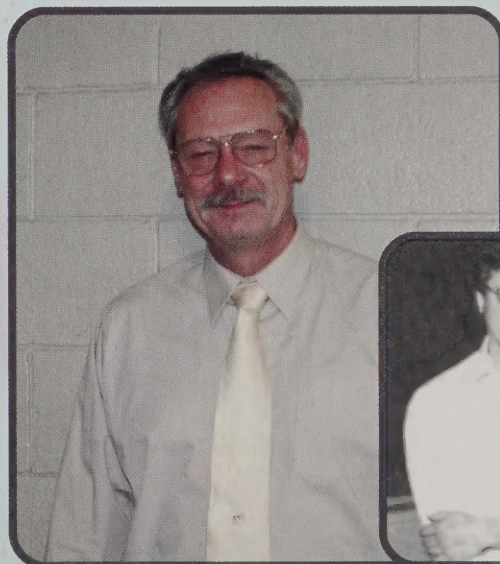

Mr. Auger

Mr. Johnson

Dr. Raphael

Mr. Walsh

Like many of you, I really was not sure what I wanted to do after I would graduate from Barlett High in Webster. During my freshman year I took an elective called "printing" which actually was a vocational trade offered at Bartlett for a few periods per week for half a year. So I thought I would be a printer. Soon, I began to learn how influential teachers can be! A junior varsity basketball coach asked what I was going to do when I graduated from Bartlett. Mr. Norman Deviau suggested that I consider teaching and coaching. He asked what subjects did I enjoy most? And I replied, "History and Science." He said, "Go to a school like Worcester State and become a teacher and you could coach." This coach/teacher saw something in a young sophomore that I never knew I had. He actually planted the pill in my head that I could be a teacher someday. I was also blessed with having two very influential teachers at Bartlett: Mr. Norman Deptula of the science department and Mr. Stanley Kabala of the History department. They would become my future role models as what I would hope to become as a teacher!

My journey at Bay Path began when I was hired here in the month of August in the year 1973. I had just completed my very first year of teaching 7th and 8th grade science and social studies at Epson Central School in New Hampshire. Coming to Bay Path was a dream come true. I just got married to Mrs. Mac in July of 1973 and our home in Dudley is just a scant five miles from Bay Path.

I have had the most honorable job in the world. For thirty six years, I was entrusted to educate the students that sat in front of me. One of the "arts" of teaching is to be able to reach the students that have different learning styles and abilities. One of the major things that I gained was the realization that students will have walked into my class with various amounts of personal baggage that may affect their learning and behavior and success at Bay Path. As a teacher I would need to adjust my expectations and teaching style according to the students needs. In teaching, every period is a different opportunity to teach. You were only as good as you were at that moment when a new class entered your door. How good you were yesterday means nothing. It is how effective you are when the class period starts.

I have met thousands of outstanding individuals in the classroom at Bay Path. So many countless graduates have gone on to be hugely successful in their lives. I am proud to say that I know these individuals as well as having played a small role in their success. The thirty five years at Bay Path have flown by both in the academic classroom and in the fourteen years of coaching Varsity Boys Soccer and ten years as Junior Varsity Boys Basketball coach.

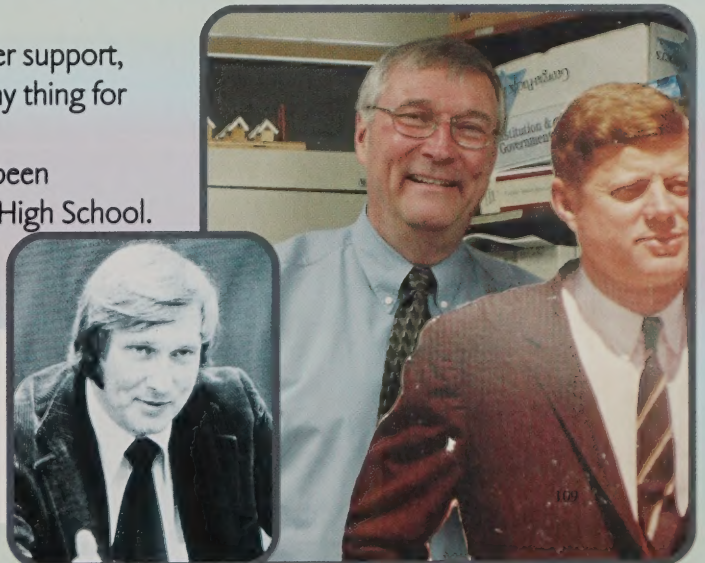

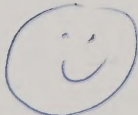

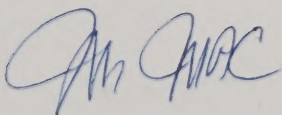

Bay Path as a school has grown in leaps and bounds. I have been fortunate to have met so many wonderful colleagues at Bay Path both in the academic area and shop and related areas. The students and faculty were both Bob McNamara's family away from home.

I want to thank the parents and guardians for allowing me the privilege of teaching their sons and daughters! I want to thank my colleagues for their time and emotional support throughout the years. So many good times in the faculty room and at our functions. I want to say thank you to all the students and athletes that I had the pleasure to meet at Bay Path. I am proud of all of you!

Mostly I want to thank my wife, Janice (Mrs. Mac) for her support, time, patience and understanding as I was allowed to do my thing for thirty six years with her blessing.

Good luck to all of you. I will always be proud to have been associated with Bay Paath Regional Vocational Technical High School.

With Respect,

Mr. Robert P. McNamara (Mr. Mac)
Social Studies Teacher/Department Head

Amanda Pearl Martin was a senior in the Cosmetology department.

Jeffrey John O'Brien was a senior in the Plumbing department.

Kayla Marie Christian was a junior in the Cosmetology department.

God looked around his garden and saw an empty face,

He then looked down upon this earth
and saw your loving face.

He put his arms around you, and lifted
you to rest,

His garden must be beautiful, he always takes the best.

He knew that you were suffering,

He knew that you were in pain.

And knew that you would never get well
on earth again.

He saw your path was difficult, he closed
your tired eyes,

He whispered to you "Peace Be Thine"
and gave you wings to fly.

When we saw you sleeping so calm and free of pain, we would not wish

You back to earth to suffer once again.
You've left us precious memories, your love will be our guide.

You live on through your friends, you're always by our side.

It broke our hearts to lose you, but you did not go alone,

For part of us went with you,

On the day God called you home.

Poem Constructed by:

Angela Lincoln & Nicole Hansen

TO THOSE I LOVE

If I should ever leave you whom I love, to go along the silent way, grieve not, nor speak of me with tears, but, laugh and talk as if I were beside you there.

I'd come - if I could I find a way! For "Too Live in Hearts I leave behind is not to Die"

When you hear a song or see something I loved, please do not let the thought of me be sad... For I am loving you just as I always have... you were so good to me!

There are many things I wanted still to do, so many things to say to you... remember that I did not fear... it was just leaving you that was so hard to face.

We cannot see beyond... but this I know:
I loved you so - 'Twas heaven here with you.

A beautiful, spontaneous Cosmo girl with the warmest embrace

Her personality stood out, she put a smile on everyone's face

There would be no way you could frown; not around her

If you had the blues, she was the cure
She spread her love and happiness around it was one of her great traits

Always to give and never to take

So when we found out the heart breaking news Everyone froze in time and broke down there was nothing we could do

The tears streamed down running longer than the Nile

This healing process would take more than a while

Now all the memories and jokes with her run through all our heads

For example "who's your daddy" one of the many funny things she said

We will keep her in our heart, its how she lives on
She will give us protection and love to keep us going strong

On earth we couldn't be greedy; she was the treasure we couldn't keep

For she was in so much pain she could barely even speak

So god transferred into an angel, gave her wings to fly free

She already had been a person others dreamed that they could be

She was our amazing

To our dear Daniel and Jamie,

How very proud we are of the young man and woman you have become. You are not only a joy and a blessing to us, but also to your teachers and friends. You have found the secret of success in life - faith in Jesus Christ - from that you have been motivated to work hard, show respect, exhibit commitment, be sensitive to the needs of others, and strive to be the best you can be in all you do. What more could we possibly hope for? Exciting things await you in your future endeavors.

Bursting with Love and Pride,

Plumbing, Heating, Ventilation, Air Conditioning

Your life began as our daughter, Brittany Marie Matthews, December 31, 1989. When we first saw you, we were in awe of what a blessing you were on that very day. Unaware of just what joy you would bring us through triumphs and explorations.

As you grew, the first challenge was to come to terms with a head full of reddish curls that took on a life of their own. As you grew into your school years, you became the girl with "that head of curls." You promised your 1st grade teacher those curls if you ever got them cut off and I believe you even brought her a baggie of those curls. They became of your signature.

You have now completed your High School years. We are in that same awe when we look at you as we were 18 years ago. You have grown into an independent, motivated, goal oriented young woman. You have learned diversity and have a compassion for those around you and a level of acceptance that is higher than any parent could ever hope for. You have met challenges head on and with determination, turned those challenges into accomplishments. As you walk with your graduating class of 2008, know that we are so proud of you for who you were at the beginning and who you are today. That pride will only grow as you enter a new phase of your life with new ventures and paths. We love you with every ounce of everything we have!

Welcome to the rest of your life.

"I hope you still feel small when you stand beside the ocean, never settle for the path of least resistance, promise me that you'll give faith a fighting chance, and when you get choice to sit it out or dance, I hope you dance..."
